

Creating a Less-Paper Environment

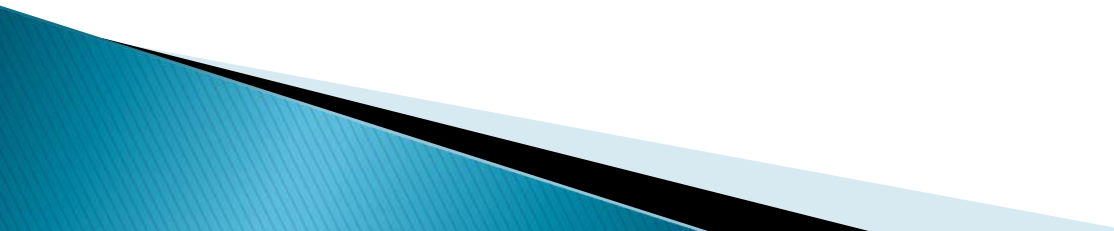

Objectives

- ▶ Reduce paper consumption
 - Reduce carbon footprint – better for environment
 - Save staff time – no document handling, copying, etc.
 - SAVE $'s
- ▶ Immediate up-to-date information to members of council and staff
 - Additions to agenda immediate
 - No additional paper

Paper Experience

- ▶ Material not kept by members of council
 - Most paper recycled after each meeting
- ▶ Additional paper for amendments or additions
- ▶ Paper packages delivered on Friday (for Tuesday meetings)
 - Changes not received by members until meeting
- ▶ Costly – paper, handling, delivery

Laptop Experience

- ▶ Too cumbersome
 - Heavy to lug
 - Screens blocked sight lines in meetings
 - ▶ Required power for long meetings
 - ▶ Continued with paper agenda “back-up”

Next move..... iPads

- ▶ More convenient
 - Light weight
 - Very portable
 - Long lasting battery life
 - User friendly/easy to learn
 - Meeting Management Software (iCompass) has an “app” for iPads

iPad Experience

- ▶ Implemented May 2012
 - Discussions with council prior to implementation to ensure buy-in
 - Tested with some members before implementation
 - Less tech savvy member
 - Average skilled computer user
 - Positive discussions and testing aided in bringing all members on board
 - Mandatory for all members
 - Discontinued paper two months after implementation

iPad configuration

- ▶ iPad Models
 - 32 GB
 - Mayor – Wi-Fi & cellular
 - Members of Council – Wi-Fi only
- ▶ Additional Apps
 - AgendaNotes
 - iBooks
 - Adobe Reader

How we use iPads

- ▶ Meeting agendas (AgendaNotes)
 - Permits mark-up of agendas by members
- ▶ Email
 - @brockville.com email for members of council
 - Separates work and personal emails
- ▶ iBooks
 - By-laws (Governance, OP, zoning, etc.)
 - Reports & studies (i.e. Strat Plan, ED Strat, Waterfront Design)
 - Pdf's

RECOMMENDATION:

THAT Zoning By-law 194-94 be amended to modify the R4-X2-9 General Residential Special Exception Zone in effect on lands described as Part of Lot B, Block 31, Plan 67, being Parts 1 and 2 on Reference Plan 28R-10733, City of Brockville, County of Leeds (6 Court Terrace), City of Brockville, to permit a "Business and Professional Office" on the first (1st) and second (2nd) levels, as well as other uses permitted in the R4 Zone, and to remove "Administrative offices of an industrial firm" as a permitted use.

PURPOSE

The purpose of this report is to provide recommendations for amendment to City of Brockville Zoning By-law 194-94 respecting the property at 6 Court Terrace.

BACKGROUND

Ms. Wendy Deugo, acting as agent for Newterra Property Ltd., owner of lands described as Part of Lot B, Block 31, Plan 67, being Parts 1 and 2 on Reference Plan 28R-10733, City of Brockville, County of Leeds (6 Court Terrace), has submitted an application for amendment to Zoning By-law 194-94. The application identifies the intent to utilize the existing building for a business and professional office along with residential units.

The subject lands are located in the downtown area of Brockville at the south west corner of Church Street and Court Terrace. The neighbourhood is a mix of commercial, institutional and residential uses, with residential uses to the west, a church on the north side of Church Street, the Court House and Court House Green to the east, and mixed commercial and residential uses to the south.

The existing building was constructed on or around 1895. During a previous zoning
